

WEBINAR

Legal Considerations for Beginning Farmers 101

Wednesday, May 6, 12-1 PM Eastern

Jennifer Friedel, Esq.

Associate Professor of Practice

Director of VA Land Use-Value Assessment Program

Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics

Virginia Tech

Join us for an introductory webinar on the legal foundations every beginning farmer should understand when starting and growing an agricultural operation. This session will cover key considerations related to land access and ownership, such as leasing and purchasing. It will also cover common business structures like sole proprietorships, partnerships, and LLCs, including how they affect liability and operations. Participants will gain practical insight into the legal steps involved in establishing a farm business, protecting assets, and making informed decisions for long-term success.
